WALKING IN VALLEY OF KINGS

Full Day

MDBLISP005 / ZINZINO Options-WALKING IN VALLEY OF KINGS

Pakerisan Valley is a mystical river and archaeological gem, home to 10th-century stone-carved shrines. Our trek begins in an authentic Balinese village surrounded by lush rice terraces, then follows a scenic path downriver through rich natural landscapes. After a 1.5-hour walk, we'll reach a moss-covered megalithic meditation complex with intricate stone carvings. A bit further lies the highlight—7-metre-high shrines carved into solid rock, unique in Bali. These ten Candi temples, inspired by Buddhist-Hindu design, are split across both sides of the river. Believed to honor King Udayana and his consorts, their exact origins remain unknown. On the return, we'll climb 400 steps to meet our transport. For those seeking more, an optional 45-minute trek leads to a spring pool at Mengening Temple, perfect for a refreshing dip before lunch. Return to your hotel afterward.

THREE LAKES OF BALI

Full Day

MDBLISP008 / ZINZINO Options-THREE LAKES OF BALI

Journey on to the Ulun Danu Temple, one of Bali's major landmarks. Located on the northwest edge of Lake Bratan (also known as "Holy Mountain" lake), the area is very fertile, and enjoys cool winters due to its lofty 1,200 metre altitude. Lake Bratan is also critical for irrigation; Bali is home to the oldest working irrigation system in the world and it is from here that water is distributed across all rice fields on the island.

After soaking up the stunning scenery, we'll leave Lake Bratan to go to the restaurant for lunch. Having lunch at local restaurant with Balinese dish travellers can delight their taste buds with a delicious selection of Indonesian and Balinese dishes made from farm-fresh, locally sourced ingredients; all while savouring the cool mountain air.

THE HISTORY OF DENPASAR CITY

Half Day

MDBLIHD030 / ZINZINO Options- THE HISTORY OF DENPASAR CITY

Start the day by exploring the city of Denpasar from the other side. Denpasar is the heart of Bali as the capital of the island known as the Island of the Gods. Unfortunately, we only know about this city which seems modern with the times. Kumbasari Market is the first destination we will explore. Located in the Gajah Mada street area, where old building from years ago are still exist. Kumbasari Market Famous as a 24 hours market, everything that local people need is available here. Your guide will help you negotiate if you want to shop for souvenirs at this market. Walking around at Gajah Mada street, we will stop for a moment to enjoy coffee at the oldest coffee shop in Bali built in 1935, "Bhineka Djaja". Nowadays coffee shops are common but Bhineka Djaja still maintains the authenticity of the building, coffee and the experience they offer to customers.

Before returning to the hotel, we will visit Jagatnatha Temple. Jagatnatha Temple is a historical Hindu's temple situated in the center of Denpasar City. Jagatnatha Temple built in east of Puputan Badung square garden, it's a public shrine to worship for Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa (call for Hindu's god). The name Jagatnatha is taken from two syllables consisting of the word "Jagat" which means "The World, the Universe" and the word "Natha" which means "Protection", so it can be interpreted that the name Jagatnatha is the Protection of the world or the Universe.

BIRDS AND ARTIST'S

Full Day

MDBLIFD019 / ZINZINO Options-BIRDS AND ARTIST'S - A FAMILY DAY

Bali Bird Park is Southeast Asia's premier bird park, offering an enjoyable day out for the entire family. It provides an array of attractions that cater to both children and parents. Located near Ubud, the park features nine captivating shows daily, along with a reptile park for added exploration. Following your visit to the Bali Bird Park and a delightful lunch, embark on a journey to Ubud in the company of your English-speaking guide.

Ubud, often regarded as the cultural heart of Bali, holds significant spiritual importance as it serves as the convergence point for multiple rivers. Nestled in the foothills of Bali's mountains, it is an ideal setting for leisurely wandering and exploration. Upon arrival, take a leisurely stroll through its charming streets and bustling markets. Should you wish to visit the palace, your guide will be on hand to assist you.

A photograph of a couple sharing a romantic dinner on a beach at night. The couple is seated at a table covered with a white cloth, which is set with plates, glasses, and a centerpiece of flowers and candles. The background features a large, rustic-style archway covered in greenery and string lights, overlooking the ocean. The overall atmosphere is intimate and tropical.

SUNSET OVER THE INDIAN OCEAN

Half Day

MDBLISP010 / ZINZINO Options-SUNSET OVER THE INDIAN OCEAN

Depart from the beach resort and head up along the Bali West coast, cruising through protected rice fields and local markets en route to Pura Batu Ngaus, a serene seaside temple located in Canggu, Bali, perched on dramatic black lava rocks overlooking the Indian Ocean. Jump back in our car and journey onward to one of Bali's most eclectic beach clubs. This tour includes one bottle of sparkling wine per couple and is an ideal trip for those who want to see Bali outside of their resort but have limited time.
